WBB RECORD BOOK

TODAY'S GAME: The Yellow Jackets host rival Bluffton as part of a doubleheader with the men. This is game number two of five straight at home for Defiance.

LAST TIME OUT: The Yellow Jackets began the five-game home stretch with a 66-37 loss to Rose-Hulman this past Saturday. The Yellow Jackets held an 18-15 advantage early in the second quarter and then Rose-Hulman used a 27-2 run to take control of the game. Defiance was held to single digit scoring quarters in the final three quarters after putting up 15 in the opening period. Karrie Smith finished with six rebounds and three assists, both career highs. Taylor Bates came away with four steals, a career high and the Yellow Jackets as a team turned it over a season high 30 times.

ABOUT THE YELLOW JACKETS: Defiance's 0-13 start to the year is the worst start in school history. The 13-game losing streak is also the longest in school history as well, surpassing the previous streak of 11 that started with five straight losses to end 2020 and included six straight losses to begin the COVID shortened season (2020-21). A new era of Defiance women's basketball is on tap this season as there is an entirely new coaching staff led by first-year leader Courtney Peay. Peay spent the last three years at Trinity International University and was the program's head coach last season. Defiance is tasked with replacing the program's top nine scorers from last season with eight departures due to graduation.

ABOUT THE BEAVERS: Bluffton enters tonight's game coming off a 72-54 upset home win over Franklin this past Saturday. The Beavers have won two of their last three games after dropping four straight. This will be just the fourth road game of the year so far this season and they are 1-2 with the lone win coming November 21 at Heidelberg. Junior guard Olivia Zender is the leading scorer for the Beavers, averaging 11 points per game. Junior guard Kayla Prigge and sophomore forward Katie Neuhart chip in with 9.5 ppg and 9.1, respectively. The Beavers average 57.8 points per game and allow an average of 64.8 per game. Bluffton was voted to finish fourth in the HCAC Preseason Poll.

THE SERIES: Defiance and Bluffton meet for the 103rd time with the Yellow Jackets holding a commanding 74-28 advantage. The last meeting at Defiance was the regular season finale last year in which DC won a thriller in double overtime.

KING LEADING THE WAY: Sophomore forward Zadria King has consistently been a bright spot for the Yellow Jackets and has led the team in scoring in six of the team's 13 game thus far. She has also been the leading rebounder in eight of the 13 games. She currently leads the team in both points and rebounds and is the only DC player to average double digit scoring per game.

FREE THROW LINE STRUGGLES: What started as a strength has turned into a struggle. During the six games in November, the Yellow Jackets shot 74 percent from the foul line (85-for-115). In the seven games since, DC is shooting just 45 percent (37-for-82).

LEARNING CURVE: The Yellow Jackets have one player returning with starting experience, which is Teagan Hunt's one game from last season. Despite the lack of starting players back for this year, many of the team's first players off the bench are back with significant experience. Ali Mowen led the way with 23 games while Hunt and Addy Allen appeared in 19 games. Zadria King and Aliza Clark each played in more than half of the team's games last season.

NEW FACES: The new blood entering the program brings a mixture of experience to the roster. The most of that comes from Kaiya Albert, who played for Coach Peay at Trinity International last year after spending single seasons at Rock Valley College and Lakeland University. Albert started 12 games for TIU last year and added 4.7 points per game. Joining Albert is incoming freshman Mone'a McElroy and local Fairview grad and former All-GMC performer Karrie Smith who transferred in from Northwest State to get her first taste of college hoops this winter.

DC BACK TO NAIA IN '24: Defiance College announced in October that the athletic programs at DC will return to the NAIA beginning on July 1, 2024. The Yellow Jackets will be full members of the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference. Defiance was an NAIA member for over 40 years prior to transitioning to NCAA Division III in the fall of 1991. Out of the women's basketball programs 13 conference championships, Defiance won 8 conference titles during that era that included seven straight titles and five 20-win seasons.

KARL H. WEANER CENTER

The Karl H. Weaner Center is the home of the Yellow Jackets men's and women's basketball programs in addition to volleyball and wrestling. Opened in 1964, the facility was transformed in the summer of 2018 with renovations to the 2,200-seat gymnasium, locker rooms, restrooms, and wrestling room. The hardwood court inside the Karl H. Weaner Center was resurfaced during the summer of 2023 and dedicated to long-time men's basketball coach and athletic director Marv Hohenberger. Hohenberger is an NAIA Hall of Famer and spent 32 years as DC's head coach, guiding the Yellow Jackets to 581 victories, 13 conference titles and 28 winning seasons between 1965-97.

PURPLE & GOLD CLUB

The Purple and Gold Club Inc. was founded in the early 1970's by Defiance community members who wanted to do something extra for all the student-athletes at Defiance College. Since its inception, the club has continually grown and has exceeded 225 members. The club serves to provide both financial assistance and personal support for the entire athletics department. ALUMNI VARSITY 'D' HALL OF FAME

Defiance College's Athletic Hall of Fame, sponsored by the Alumni Varsity D Club, recognizes DC alumni for outstanding athletic achievement while enrolled at the Defiance College, their accomplishments after graduation, and a continuing interest in the development of the College. The inductees will be recognized at the Alumni Varsity D Breakfast with the official introduction ceremony taking place at halftime of the homecoming football game, which will take place this year on Saturday, October 7. Each of the inductees will be commemorated with a tree planted in the Hall of Fame Grove. Each member is also honored as in the brick walkway connecting Justin F. Coressel Stadium to the Karl H. Weaner Center as a symbol of those greats from the past that paved the way for current Yellow Jackets.
